LETTERS FROM MUSTANG.

CITY OF MEXICO, April, 25, 1848. Yesterday and to-day there has been no busien unwell on entering the Court, and the Court adjourned. Lt. Dutton, Pa. Vols., is now on trial. A few days ago I stated that Lt. Tilden was arrested and charged as being implicated of the members vacant, and in them up by event will the ten regiment on pass; and it is was arrested and charged as being implicated in the affair; there are two Lt. Tildens in the army, which I did not think of at the timethe one arrested is Lt. B. P. Tilden. The case of Hare is closed, as you will see by the proceedings I send you-the verdict will not be rendered until all the cases, some eight in number, are disposed of.

To-day an attempt was made to rob the stage on the road from here to Puebla. There were two American soldiers in the stage as an escort-the robbers, fifteen in number, sallied out from the thick wood by the roadside, the guard fired on them, killing one and wounding another badly, when the whole party re-

On Sunday last there was a splendid military performance on the plains of Molino del Rey. The division of Gen worth, and the division in the presence of our peace commissioners, the Commissioners regret the loss of his valuable services, as there is no man here of his rank as a candidate for a seat in the Lower House of the show—being some three miles long gradually rising from the Molino to the North; the city lays off in the distance—a beautiful prospect—

STEAM and the valley opens to the enchanted view, surrounded by a ridge of dark towering mountains, with the snow-capped peaks of Popocat-epeti and Istaccihuati ascend heavenwardshigh among the highest—the associations of tively quiet for the past few days, and what is this place is fresh in the memory of us all—it most singular to relate, we have not had a robwas here we witnessed the indomitable courage of the 1st division—it was here 800 brave American troops fell in one hour's fighting, and among them some of the very pride and chivalry of our army. Good citizens at home and soldiers in the field, are synonymous, and whenever I see a condition look him the soldier look here. Besident to carry any measure.

At the first of the meeting of the Congress, they will confirm the election of Herrera, as ever I see a good soldier I set him down as a good citizen, morally and physically strong, If we are to have no more fighting, these men then will not, as a body, have an opportunity of measuring their steel with the foe; but the strong of the Congress, and the decimal of the Congress, as President, and the formation of a new ministry will follow, which will facilitate affairs.—
The present Minister of Relations is a man of considerable ability, but he is most wofully determined to the congress, as provided the congress of the congress, as provided the congress of the congress, as provided the congress of the congress, as provided the congress of the congres then will not, as a body, have an opportunity of measuring their steel with the foe; but there were many there who showed the stuff that Senor Cuevas will go into the new Cabinet of measuring their steel with the foe; but there were many there who showed the stuff they were made of in front of the battlements of Monterey, the cliffs of Buena Vista, the sands of Vera Cruz, and the heights of Cerro Gordo; and if they are to have no more fighting, they will go home with the proud conso ing, they will go home with the proud conso Gen.
